We are Wärtsilä – one global team of purpose-driven experts committed to decarbonising the marine and energy industries. Operating under our leadership behaviours and core values of customer success, passion, and performance, we are united in shaping a sustainable future for societies.

Our story begun already in 1834 in Finland. This 190-year journey has been enabled by our innovations, our extraordinary ability to adapt to change, and most of all by our people. We are always on the look for bright minds to join our journey of decarbonising the marine and energy industries.

Want to unlock your personal growth opportunities and to make a lasting impact on society?

Fuel your power with us, one of the world's most influential companies.

Our crucial roles:

Engineers:

- Mechanical (Field Service - global travelling)
- Electrical and Automation (Field Service - global travelling)
- Design (office)
